

Hello! Change of editor from last time, and as it's technically my job to do these newsletters, I suppose I ought to get on with them!

This newsletter really is for you lot – the members! So if there's anything you'd like to see in here that's not here at the moment, please let me know! If you need to contact me, drop me a line on jon@bats.uk.net

Cheers!
Jon.

Suddenly At Home – 22/23 September

As you're probably all aware, our latest production, Francis Durbridge's "Suddenly At Home" is on at Holmemead School on 22 and 23 September – the curtain goes up at 8pm sharp! If you're interested in purchasing tickets to this, they are available (as usual) in Thomas Morris estate agents in Biggleswade for £5 a seat.

Drama Festival Meeting

Just a quick reminder that on Monday 25th we'll be holding a meeting to look at (and more importantly, decide on) scripts for the 2007 drama festivals. If anyone has any scripts they'd like to propose to the group, please try to get these out in advance so people can read them beforehand! On the evening itself you can then present your script and we'll have a short read through. We'll be voting for the scripts that get produced on that evening, so if you're interested – get those scripts out now!

Open Evening & End of Show Party – Now 29 September

Kay mentioned in the last newsletter that we were planning a social evening combined with an open evening for potential members. As before, please let us know of any good ideas you may have for this! Secondly, the date of this has now been changed to September 29th – still at the Weatherly Centre, still at 8pm! Book the date in your diary now folks!

Panto – Robin Hood

Yep, it's that time of year again! BATS will be putting on it's production of Robin Hood in January 2007 – but there's a long way to go before that! Auditions and read throughs for kids and adults will start on Monday 2nd October. As Kay said last time – any help is gratefully received – those of you who've done panto before will know how much work it is, so the more people we can get involved, the easier it will be for all of us!

OK – I think that's all for this month. Like I said – if there's anything you want to go in here, drop me an e-mail or see me on Monday evenings and I'll see what I can do!
